

MICAILAH LOCKHART

BIO

You [Micailah] are the real thing and I know I'll be seeing and hearing from you all my life. You are just great."

– Marc Shaiman, Tony Award Winning Broadway composer, lyricist, arranger and performer

Micailah Lockhart has raw talent that cannot be contained. She is an 18-year-old powerhouse with an old soul, filled with faith and a far-reaching love of the arts. As a singer, Micailah is a 5-octave vocal prodigy who ignites the stage when she performs and blows audiences away.

Marc Shaiman, the great Tony Award Winning Broadway composer, lyricist, arranger and performer for films, television, and theatre, perhaps best known for writing the music and co-writing the lyrics for the Broadway musical Hairspray, has been a mentor to Micailah. He has enlisted Micailah on numerous projects, including an appearance on a PBS taping of the American Songbook Series at the New Jersey Performing Arts Center. Micailah performed Marc Shaiman's song "I Can't Let You Go" from the TV series "Smash". On her performance, Marc commented, "...you [Micailah] are the real thing and I know I'll be seeing and hearing from you all my life. You are just great."

During her last year at the famed Dreyfoos School of the Arts, Micailah had the amazing opportunity to sing for Nick Cannon, America's Got Talent host, who came to Dreyfoos as Principal for the Day. Nick exclaimed, "The girl got skills."
